

Government of Uttarakhand
State Institute for Empowering and Transforming Uttarakhand (SETU)
Department of Planning

The government of Uttarakhand has come out with the Sashakta Uttarakhand Vision which has paved the way for the faster and sustainable development of the State. The state envisions doubling the GDP in a timebound manner in the next five years by harnessing untapped opportunities while preserving unique environmental heritage, fostering equitable development, and creating job opportunities. The State has undertaken several institutional reforms to achieve the ambitious goals and wishes to become a developed State by the year 2047 when the Country and State will be celebrating its 100 years of independence.

State Institute for Empowering and Transforming Uttarakhand (SETU) has been established vide Government Notification No. 220/E-44799/XXVI/1(08)/2022 dated 21ST July 2022 as a dedicated think tank for effective policy planning, fostering innovations, optimum utilization of the resources by convergence, coordination, networking, and community participation as well as overseeing monitoring and evaluation processes.

SETU will play a pivotal role in strategically shaping the state's future, providing specialized inputs to both the State Leadership and various State Government Departments, crucial to realizing the objectives outlined in the Sashakta Uttarakhand Vision. The envisioned SETU will serve as a cutting-edge resource center equipped with the requisite knowledge and skills to empower the State Government to act swiftly, promote research and innovation, formulate strategic policy visions, and adeptly address unforeseen challenges.
